

I can go with this petition RM-10811. The higher code speed will mean that it will be retained, in memory, over a longer time and that could be helpful in dire communications needs.